Family is nice and sweet

Every family is very neat.

Families have different ways of living but it is the love they never stop giving.

Without your family you would feel sad because a family can make you glad.